

Extraordinary Things through Ordinary People

Chapter 3

Audio Lesson: Old Testament Survey lesson 29

Objective: To learn how God works through the lives of ordinary people who are submitted and available to Him.

When the Lord raised up judges for them, the Lord was with the judge and delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the Lord was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and afflicted them.

—Judges 2:18

The personal lives of Israel's judges make for some of the most interesting character studies in the Bible. For the most part, the judges were ordinary people with the same strengths and faults that many of us have. The book of Judges shows us that God delights in doing extraordinary things through very ordinary people like you and me. Through God's Spirit, these ordinary people were able to accomplish great things. Though the book of Judges is primarily about apostasy and its terrible consequences, it shows us some wonderful truths about how God honors faithfulness and fulfills His purposes for His people.

1. True or false? God does great things through great people because of their greatness.
2. True or false? We do not have cycles of obedience and apostasy today like Israel did.
3. True or false? There were about seven cycles of apostasy and three civil wars in the period of the Judges.
4. True or false? Cycles of apostasy can apply to nations, individuals, families, and churches.

Unless otherwise noted, choose one answer for each question.
